

National Public Employees' Code of Conduct

1 Actions that put our citizens first

- Act with a sense of mission as a national public employee who supports the country, putting our citizens first and taking sincere action with ambition and enthusiasm
- Effectively utilize limited resources and maximize performance in order to continue providing reliable administrative services

2 Performance of duties from a neutral and impartial standpoint

- Perform duties from a neutral and impartial standpoint, without favoring the interests of specific individuals or organizations
- Understand the diverse needs and various perspectives regarding public administration, and carry out duties with a broad perspective

3 Objective judgment based on expertise and evidence

- Make objective judgments based on evidence, while always being mindful of transparency in administrative operations, in order to earn the trust of our citizens.
- Deepen knowledge, hone skills, and take pride and responsibility as a professional in public administration